

ANNUAL CONSULTANTS' CONFERENCE

JUNE 8-11
2011
SAN DIEGO

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CERTIFIED VALUATORS AND ANALYSTS • INSTITUTE OF BUSINESS APPRAISERS

Track: Matrimonial Litigation

Session Date/Time: Thursday, June 9, 2011 • 12:55 – 1:50 PM

Session Title: Hot Topics in Family Law

Session Summary:

"Hot Topics in Family Law" will cover important trends and current issues in family law which may have impact on forensic accountants and business valuation experts attending the conference.

CPE Hours/Fields of Study: CPE: 1 • 1Hr-BL

Presenter Bio(s): Maryann Foley, JD

No
Photo
Available

Maryann is a sole practitioner in Anchorage, Alaska. She has been an attorney for more than 30 years and practices exclusively in the area of domestic relations. Ms. Foley, a member of the American, Alaska and Anchorage Bar Associations, currently serves as Vice Chair of the ABA's Family Law Section. She graduated with a B.A. from the State University of New York at Oneonta and earned her J.D. from the State University of New York at Buffalo.

Scott Friedman, JD

Scott is an OSBA Board Certified Specialist in Family Relations Law. He is also licensed to practice law in the State of Florida. He is a Fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial lawyers, as well as member of the Columbus Bar Association's Family Law Committee, the Ohio State Bar Association Family Law Committee, and the American Bar Association Family Section. Mr. Friedman serves as an elected member of the American Bar Association Family Law Section Council.

Karen J. Kaseno, CPA/ABV/CFF, CVA, CFE, CFFA

Karen is an alumni of Deloitte Haskins + Sells and has been practicing in the area of litigation services since 1989. Her practice specializes in family law, business valuations, economic damage cases and fraud investigations. She has been appointed by the family law court as an Evidence Code §730 Special Master on hundreds of occasions.

Randall Kessler, JD

Randy was born in Gainesville, Florida, raised in New Orleans and having attended college at Brandeis University near Boston, MA, he came to Georgia in 1985 to attend Emory Law School. He has over 20 years of experience in Domestic Relations and Family Law matters including divorce, custody, paternity, prenuptial agreements and child support.